Named Sunday Topic

The meaning and scope of "Local Church Membership" will be discussed by Mr. R. E. Prout at the 11 a.m. service at the Church of Christ, 1217 Cravens Ave., Sunday morning. In the evening, Mr. Prout's topic will be "You're Never Too Young."

Tartar Teen Talk

The performance of the 1955 variety show, "Dream 26" proved to be one of the most outstanding displays of talent ever presented at Torrance High School. Receiving raves from all sides for their outstanding performances were Sherwood Tiernan singing "Nobody," "Madcap" danced by Elsa Barlow, and Karen Brunel and Diana Cook singing "Birth of the Blues."

Thanks of the students go to Tom Quaggin and Eddie Show for dreaming up this "Dream 26" and to Mr. Von Hershey, who acted as supervising director; and, of course, to the Girls' and Boys' League cabinets headed by Linda Thistle and Dennis Moss.

Quite a few members of the cast of the variety show were to be seen at the home of Mr. Von Hershey Friday night. They gathered there to celebrate the fine performances they gave that evening.

Foreign educators were to be seen observing our campus life here Tuesday. They visited us from SC.

Friday the Girls' League will present their annual Christmas Aud call. The girls plan a lively 45 minutes of entertainment, supplying the talent from the league.

The student council has set to work at planning the annual Winter Formal. The theme this year will be "Sno-Land Fantasy." All Tartars are being asked to get those dates lined up for dancing through "Sno-Land."

AmStan May Merge with Mullins Co.

A merger between the American Radiator and Standard Sanitary Corp. and the Mullins Manufacturing Corp. has been approved by the boards of directors of the firms, subject to the approval of the stockholders next Jan. 17.

This announcement was made in a joint statement by Joseph A. Grazer, president of American Standard, and George E. Whitlock, chairman of the board at the Mullins Manufacturing Corp., in New York, this week. American Standard's Torrance division is located at 1325 Crenshaw Blvd.

Special meetings of the stockholders of both companies will be held in New York City on Jan. 27, 1956, to act on the recommendation of the board. If the vote is favorable, papers making it effective will be filed shortly afterward.

Mullins Manufacturing Corp. will become the Youngstown Kitchen Division of American Standard, if the merger is approved.

Blackfeet Club Inducted Into YMCA Jr. Hi-Y

In a ceremony held Tuesday evening at the First Methodist Church, the Blackfeet Club was officially inducted into National YMCA Jr. Hi-Y Fellowship. Members of the Torrance Hi-Y Club conducted the ceremony. Rev. Don Shelby of the Methodist Church gave the boys their emblems with an appropriate challenging talk.

JINGLE BELLS ARE IN THE AIR... as the Junior Women's Club plans its first Christmas dance, to be held Saturday evening, Dec. 10, at the Hacienda Hotel from 9 until 1 a.m. Shown planning the affair are, from left, Mrs. J. J. Setting, decorations chairman; Mrs. Jack C. Dean and Mrs. John Agapito, general chairman. Also serving on the committee are Mrs. D. G. Paul and Miss Gerry Wood, door prizes. Tickets are being sold by Junior Club women. Frank James orchestra will furnish music for dancing.
